Each medium has strength the other does not. Each makes use of strong points that the other lacks. Television news is like a having a fast food meal whereas reading newspaper is like having a ten course dinner. The ideal seems to be, if one has the time to both read the news and watch it on television.

News coverage over television is different from reading newspapers. Newspapers were primarily established to cover the news and later on they added entertainment. On the other hand television was mainly invented for entertainment and then it became an effective news medium.
